Subject: Request for the Inclusion of 'National Progressive Party' in the List of the Election Commission of India.

Respected Sir,

We extend our cordial greetings and trust this letter finds you well. It is with utmost respect and a sense of responsibility that we approach your esteemed office with a matter of great importance pertaining to our political organization, the 'National Progressive Party'.

Our party was formally registered on August 13, 2013, and has made consistent strides towards fostering democratic values and contributing to our nation's growth. However, a recent observation on the official website of the Election Commission of India has unveiled that our party is no longer listed therein, an occurrence that has left us perplexed due to the absence of any prior communication on the matter.

In this regard, we would like to bring to your esteemed attention the following points:

Sir,

- 1) Regrettably, we have not received any official correspondence from the Election Commission of India regarding the delisting of our party.
- 2) It is worth noting that our party has yet to complete 10 years since its inception.
- 3) We have diligently submitted all relevant financial documents, including audited accounts and balance sheets, duly certified by a Chartered Accountant.

- 13) Our commitment to procedural transparency is evident in our timely submission of the resolution pertaining to the election of our party's official president.
- 14) Furthermore, we have dutifully furnished the complete list of office bearers to the Election Commission of India as required by regulatory norms.
- 15) Our party has consistently communicated its programs and initiatives to the Election Commission of India, ensuring compliance with necessary reporting obligations.

We recognize that our party has refrained from actively participating in electoral contests thus far, owing to specific reasons which we believe warrant consideration:

- 1) Our efforts have been concentrated on consolidating our base and fostering a strong 'Sangathan', aimed at encouraging public involvement, despite initial challenges in attracting memberships.
- 2) The global pandemic has posed substantial hindrances, limiting our ability to engage in electoral campaigns and activities.

3) During a challenging period, our party faced the unfortunate loss of two central executive committee members, compounded by the illness of our party president.

Presently, our party stands prepared and eager to actively participate in the forthcoming General Elections of 2024. We firmly believe that the foundation we have established, including a robust 'Sangathan', positions us to make a meaningful contribution to the democratic process.

With the aforementioned context, we humbly request your esteemed intervention to reinstate the 'National Progressive Party' within the official roster of recognized political entities under the aegis of the Election Commission of India. We also kindly seek the allocation of a symbol to enable our participation in the upcoming Lok Sabha election.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for considering our appeal. Your support in reinstating our party would not only bolster our morale but also reaffirm our commitment to the democratic values that our great nation upholds.

Thank you for your attention and understanding.

Thanking you,

Sincerely Yours.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To
The President
National Progressive Party, New Delhi

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial Statements of National Progressive Party, New Delhi (the "Party") which comprises the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2015 and the Income & Expenditure Statement for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information on that date annexed thereto.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Party Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of financial position, financial performance of the Party in accordance with the Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal controls relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We have conducted our audit in accordance with the standards on auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with the ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidences about the amounts and their disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and reasonableness of the account estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Financial Statements give the information in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India.

- i. In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the State of affairs of the Party as at 31st March 2015, and,
- ii. In the case of the Income & Expenditure statement, of the excess of income over expenditure of the Party for the year ended on that date.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

Further, we report that:

- a) We have obtained all the information and explanation which to the best of our Knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
- b) In our opinion, proper books of account, as required by law have been kept by the Party so far, as appears from our examination of such books;
- c) The Balance sheet and Income & Expenditure Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account;

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES ON ACCOUNTS

a) Basis of Preparation

The Financial Statements are prepared under the historical cost convention on accrual basis and in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles and the applicable Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements is in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles which require the Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities on the date of financial statements. Actual results if they differ from those estimates are recognized in the current and future accounting periods.

c) Revenue Recognition

Except annual membership fee from members all income are recognized on accrual basis.

d) Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. The depreciation is provided as per the written down value method for the full year irrespective of the date of purchase.

e) Investments

All investments are long term and stated at cost. Provision for diminution if any in the value of investments, other than temporary, is made in the accounts.

f) Employee Benefits

Remuneration and other employee benefits payable are accounted for on accrual basis.

g) Provisions, contingent liabilities

The party creates a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may but probably will not require an outflow of resources. Disclosure is also made in respect of a present obligation that probably requires an outflow of resources, where it is not possible to make a reliable estimate of the related outflow. Where there is a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.
